

Hot Drinks Packaging in South Africa

April 2024

Table of Contents

KEY DATA FINDINGS

2023 DEVELOPMENTS

Major pack type flexible aluminium/plastic continues to record growth in 2023

Green tea growing as South Africans look for healthy hot drinks

Small pack sizes remain popular

PROSPECTS AND OPPORTUNITIES

Glass jars will lose ground to lighter options over the forecast period

Sustainability takes centre stage as consumers prefer responsible packaging

About Euromonitor International

Euromonitor International is an independent market intelligence provider. Data, insight and analysis stem from in-the-field research spanning 210 national markets.

Content ranges from the in-depth and country-specific, to key strategic themes with a global range and significance. Products cover a comprehensive range of insights and market data, but can be broadly categorised as:

- Strategy Briefings: Global or regional in scope, and focussing on the most important themes shaping consumer demand, the key markets, competitive environment and future outlook across a range of industries.
- Company Profiles: Analysis dedicated to the world's most significant companies, with detailed insight into their activities, focus of operations, their competitors, their geographic presence and performance.
- Country Reports: For an in-depth understanding of specific countries, whether by industry, economic metrics or consumer trends and lifestyles. These reports cover current trends, consumer demand, market potential and future prospects, with country-specific local insight and comprehensive data, unavailable elsewhere.

For more information on this report, further enquiries can be directed via this link www.euromonitor.com/hot-drinks-packaging-in-south-africa/report.