

Megatrends in Indonesia

October 2023

Table of Contents

Scope

The drivers shaping consumer behaviour

Megatrends framework

Businesses harness megatrends to renovate, innovate and disrupt

Convenience

Legit Group set to scale up its cloud kitchen business

Tech is being used to simplify everyday tasks

Consumers seek more flexibility in all areas of life

Indonesians want to see things before buying

Lack of time to cook is driving the food delivery category

Digital living

Tokopedia enhances e-commerce offering with subscription plan

Millennials make the greatest use of tech

Most consumers are protective of their personal data

Gen Z prefer to stay anonymous online

Consumer reviews are the most trusted information source

Consumers expect more face-to-face activity post-pandemic

Diversity and inclusion

Starbucks Indonesia opens its first signing store staffed by the deaf and hard of hearing

Indonesians show strong support for charitable causes

Most people feel comfortable expressing their identity

Brand trust is important to shoppers

Experience more

Realme opens new experience store as part of its omnichannel strategy

Indonesians enjoy socialising both online and offline

Safety and nature are the key priorities when travelling

Consumers are still more likely to enjoy real world than online experiences

Personalisation

TikTok launches personalised subscription-only music streaming service

Younger generations are the most enthusiastic about virtual activities

Most Indonesians enjoy tailored experiences

Premiumisation

Bakery-café flourish on the back of expanding urban middle class consumer base

Most Indonesians desire a simpler lifestyle

Millennials are the most confident in their long-term investments

Health, quality and comfort are prized attributes

Pursuit of value

GoTo promotes financial inclusion by making GoPay app accessible to unbanked consumers

Most Indonesians lead a minimalist lifestyle

Shoppers are worried about the rising cost of living

Indonesians are embracing the circular economy

Consumers seek ways to make their money go further

Shopper reinvented

Quick-commerce platform Astro scales up and increases private label range

Indonesians enjoy the shopping experience

S-commerce gains traction as part of the omnichannel experience

Young people interact most with brands online

Sustainable living

The World Bank supports efforts to improve urban mobility in Indonesia

Indonesians want to make positive differences

Mindful consumption is on the rise

Reducing plastics use is top of mind for eco-conscious consumers

Wellness

Halodoc enhances healthcare accessibility for millions of Indonesians

Massage remains the principal antidote to stress

Indonesians take a keen interest in healthy eating

Consumers remain wary of health and safety in post-pandemic era

Leverage the power of megatrends to shape your strategy today

About Euromonitor International

Euromonitor International is an independent market intelligence provider. Data, insight and analysis stem from in-the-field research spanning 210 national markets.

Content ranges from the in-depth and country-specific, to key strategic themes with a global range and significance. Products cover a comprehensive range of insights and market data, but can be broadly categorised as:

- Strategy Briefings: Global or regional in scope, and focussing on the most important themes shaping consumer demand, the key markets, competitive environment and future outlook across a range of industries.
- Company Profiles: Analysis dedicated to the world's most significant companies, with detailed insight into their activities, focus of operations, their competitors, their geographic presence and performance.
- Country Reports: For an in-depth understanding of specific countries, whether by industry, economic metrics or consumer trends and lifestyles. These reports cover current trends, consumer demand, market potential and future prospects, with country-specific local insight and comprehensive data, unavailable elsewhere.

For more information on this report, further enquiries can be directed via this link www.euromonitor.com/megatrends-in-indonesia/report.